RESIDENT HANDBOOK

Updated August 2024

Goal

OUR House, Inc. offers persons in recovery who have made a commitment to live a drug and alcohol-free lifestyle, a safe environment in which to live and function. Our goal is to help you develop positive life coping skills that will allow you to master the social and professional demands of society. We believe that providing a supportive, family-like living environment will enable you to learn and practice the principles upon which a lifetime of recovery can be built.

Prospective Residents

ADMISSION POLICY

Upon first contact with O.U.R. House staff, whether by phone or in person, staff will screen the potential resident to determine their appropriateness for residency. If the potential resident is identified as an unlikely candidate for admission, suitable referrals may be provided to a higher level of care and/or another WVARR certified residence.

Admission Criteria may include, but is not limited to:

- Age 18 years of age or older
- Be willing and capable of contributing $300.00 per month for the program fee. This will be due at the time of admission and each month of residency.
- Abstinance of intoxicating, mind- or mood-altering substances for a minimum of 14 days (no acute medical withdraw symptoms)
- Have a primary diagnosis of substance use disorder.
- Have adequate control over their behavior and assessed not to be imminently dangerous to self or others.
- Express a desire to recover from an active substance use disorder.
- Have a desire to recover using the 12-step program.
- Sign releases of information for medical, legal, and mental health histories.
- Pass a drug and alcohol test upon admission and agree to random drug screen testing.
- Have the ability to use the program as a transition to independent living.
- Be assessed as medically appropriate and free of any long-term illness that requires isolation from others.
- Have the capacity for active participation in all OUR House activities and responsibilities.

OUR House, Inc. Resident Handbook

- Be able to meet personal needs without assistance.
- Willingness to work, be enrolled in school, or a combination of both. If receiving disability income, resident will be asked to engage in volunteer work.
- Commit to total abstinence from intoxicating, mind- or mood-altering substances.
- Respect the rights, views, and property of other residents and get along with others.

Exclusion Criteria

- Have a clinical diagnosis that meets the criteria for a higher level of care (e.g., acutely psychotic or a danger to self or others) Referrals may be provided to a higher level of care and/or another WVARR certified residence.
- Have severe permanent cognitive impairment that would prevent the applicant from participating in scheduled peer-led, peer-driven, social model house activities.
- Have ongoing medical conditions, which require a higher level of monitoring and care than can be provided by OUR House.
- Due to our location, we will not accept persons with certain criminal convictions (such as sex offenses, child abuse, violent crimes).

□ Screening

All prospective residents will be subject to an interview/evaluation with the Director, Secretary or their designee, in person and /or by phone. Photo identification must be available (a photocopy to be kept in the resident's file). A complete and signed application will be kept in the resident's file.

Guidelines and Procedures

1. Chain of Command: All resident's questions, concerns and comments are to be directed to the Resident Trustee or the Director.
2. Room Changes: Residents may move to a different bed within the house when a bed opens based on seniority. Management must approve moves between rooms.
5. Valuables: One Unique Recovery House, Inc. staff and/or management is not responsible for residents' personal property. All items are brought in at the resident's risk and bringing valuables in is highly discouraged. This includes cash, money cards, checks, etc.
6. Emergencies: The police should only be called in the case of real emergencies. In the case of minor incidents, inform the Resident Trustee or Director. Each resident will provide staff with emergency contact as well.
7. Mail Etiquette: All mail will be distributed by the Resident Trustee or Director. Opening mail addressed to another person is a federal offense and a violation of house rules.

OUR House, Inc. Resident Handbook

8. Events: Periodic events may be held at the house including barbeques, holiday events, etc. These events are provided for the enjoyment of the residents and their family and friends. We strive to make OUR House as close to a home environment as possible and believe that fellowship with others in twelve-step programs is an important aspect of recovery.
9. Medical Needs: Resident must sign a medical release of information with OUR House so that management can communicate directly with physicians. Resident must notify House Director of medical appointments and emergency visits to ER or clinics. It is the resident's responsibility to pay for personal doctor visits and all medications prescribed.
10. Misc.: Residents are not allowed any snacks, food, or drinks (water only) in their bedrooms. Residents are responsible to not leave dirty dishes in the sink or cups/ glasses sitting around.
11. Residents may only leave the house after chores are complete.
12. Lawncare: Residents are responsible for upkeep of the yard, garden, and plants.

House Integrity

House Integrity rests on the principles of HONESTY. When any resident violates the rules and customs of OUR House, it disrespects the efforts of every other resident who is honestly working to establish a plan for lifelong recovery. Maintaining the integrity of OUR House means that if you have personal knowledge of the occurrence of any of the violations listed below, you need to report it to the Resident Trustee immediately.

- Use of alcohol and /or drugs.
- The presence of alcohol or drugs on the premises.
- The use of Energy Drinks
- Smoking or use of smokeless tobacco in any part of the house other than the designated area located behind the house.
- Pornographic material on the premises.
- Breaking another resident's anonymity and confidentiality.
- Weapons of any kind are strictly prohibited.
- Sexual harassment and /or sexual activity on the premises.
- Leaving the house or staying out after curfew (unless at work)
- Stealing from O.U.R. House premises, donated items, other resident, visitors, or staff.
- Lying to OUR House representatives. (staff, board members, volunteers)

While it may be tempting to not report on someone else in the house, please remember that you are not helping them in their recovery

OUR House, Inc. Resident Handbook

by being part of covering up their negative, self- defeating behaviors. Half measures should not be practiced or tolerated when it comes to making sure that OUR House is a safe, positive environment for you, for your fellow residents and for those residents yet to come. If it is known that you had personal knowledge of a violation and failed to report it, you are subject to the same discipline as the resident that violated rules.
